Father in the name of Jesus, I commit myself to walk in the Word. I thank You that in the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God. Your Word living powerfully in me, because I choose to hide Your Word in my heart to protect me from sin and evil. Your Word is steadfast, sure, and eternal – I trust my life to its provisions.

You have sent your Word into my heart. I allow Your Word to dwell in me richly in all wisdom. I meditate on it day and night so that I might diligently act on it. The incorruptible Seed, the Living Word, the Word of Truth, is abiding in my spirit. That Seed is growing mightily in me right now, producing Your nature, and Your life. Your Word is my counsel, my shield, my buckler, my powerful weapon in battle. The Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. It makes my way plain before me. I do not stumble for my feet are ordered in the Word.

The Holy Spirit leads and guides me into all truth. He gives me understanding, discernment, and comprehension so that I am preserved from the snares of the evil one.

I delight myself in You and Your Word. Because of that, You put Your desires in my heart. I commit my way to You, and You bring it to pass. I am confident that You are at work in me now both to will and to do all Your good pleasure, and I thank You that the plans You have for me are for good and not for evil, to give me a future and a hope.

I exalt Your Word, hold it in high esteem, and give it first place. I make my schedule around Your Word. I make the Word final authority in my life, to settle all questions that confront me. I choose to agree with the Word of God, and I choose to disagree and cast down any thoughts, imaginations, conditions, or circumstances that are contrary to Your Word. I boldly and confidently say that my heart is fixed and established on the solid foundation – the living Word of God. Amen.
