Father I thank you that the sharing of my faith becomes effectual by acknowledging every good thing in me in Christ Jesus. I hear the voice of the Good Shepherd. I hear my Father's voice and the voice of a stranger I will not follow.

Father, I believe in my heart and say with my mouth that this day the will of God is done in my life. I ask that you fill me with the knowledge of your will and spiritual understanding, that I may walk worthy of You, fully pleasing You and being fruitful in every good work. Jesus has been made wisdom to me wisdom from You. I single-mindedly walk in that wisdom expecting to know what to do in every situation and to be on top of every circumstance!

Father, I commit my works to You, and You are making my thoughts agreeable to Your will, and so my plans are established and succeed. You direct my steps and make them sure. I am not vague, thoughtless, or foolish, but I understand and firmly grasp what the will of the Lord is. I stand firm and in spiritual growth, convinced and fully assured in everything willed by God.

Father, I thank you that the eyes of my understanding are flooded with light, so that I know and understand the hope that you have called me to, and the richness of Your glorious inheritance that You have placed in the saints around me. You are also causing me to know and understand what is the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of Your power in and for myself and all that believe.

Father, you have destined and appointed me to come progressively to know Your will, perceiving and recognizing the voice of Your spirit that lives and abides in me. The anointing that we have received from your Spirit teaches us all things, and guides us into all truth. I have the mind of Christ and hold the thoughts, feelings, and purposes of His heart.

So Father, I have entered into that blessed rest by adhering, trusting and relying on You in the name of Jesus. Hallelujah. Amen.
